

LAUSCH

Alternative Rock from Vienna, Austria

ABOUT

LAUSCH are an alternative rock band from Vienna, active since 2005. Across six studio albums and a live EP they push 90s rock, post-rock and progressive into something loud, melodic and slightly off-centre. Reviewers keep reaching for the same three names: Biffy Clyro, Muse and Long Distance Calling. The band have played Nova Rock, the FM4 stage at Donauinselfest and, in April 2026, Arena Vienna. Their singles are in regular rotation on Austrian radio 88.6. The most recent one is "Fortitude" (2025); a live version of it was played and filmed at the Arena show and is online as a video. A new single follows in 2026.

PRESS

Were LAUSCH British and not Austrian, they would have made their breakthrough long ago.

ROCK HARD (TRANSL. FROM GERMAN)

...brilliantly masters the advanced non-mainstream rock sound.

MICHAEL TERNAI, MICA (TRANSL. FROM GERMAN)

Love & Order is relevant for the Austrian music scene.

THE GAP (TRANSL. FROM GERMAN)

Heavy as fuck. Pretty cool dudes.

SPHEREMAG.CO.UK

Alexander Lausch might just have the best rock voice in all of Austria.
